DANCE ON AIR

Legend has it that Ginger Rogers bought a home in the small Oregon town of Shady Cove back in the 1940s. Accessible, yet elegant, much like the queen of tap herself, this cocktail honors the icon in all her glory and resplendent Ginger-ishness. Adapted from a recipe by Mixologist, Tom Klus at Portland's Bluehour.

Ingredients:

3 oz	New Deal Vodka
1 oz	LOFT Spicy Ginger Cello
To taste	Fresh mint
To taste	Lime

Directions:

1. Place a few sprigs of fresh mint into the bottom of a cocktail shaker. Using a spoon or muddler, gently bruise the mint leaves.
2. Fill the shaker halfway up with a few handfuls of ice.
3. Pour the New Deal Vodka and LOFT Spicy Ginger Cello into the shaker. Cover and shake.
4. Strain into a chilled martini glass. Finish with a quick squeeze of lime.
5. Garnish with a lime wheel.
