

NEW DEAL CHOCOLATE EGG CREAM

Another stellar concoction inspired by Bradley Dawson at Portland's Belly Timber. It's a grown up version of a traditional chocolate egg cream, and we could easily drink one (several) every day. Make sure not to skip out on the basil...it adds dimension that we simply can't put words to.

Ingredients:

1 oz	New Deal Vodka
2 T	Dagoba Chocolate Syrup
¾ Cup	Whole milk
¾ Cup	Soda Water
3	Basil leaves
	Vodka Whipped Cream

Directions:

1. Place 2 leaves in the bottom of a tall glass. Using the back of a spoon or a muddler, gently bruise leaves.
2. Remove leaves from glass and add 2 handfuls of ice.
3. Mix milk, chocolate syrup and New Deal Vodka in a separate glass.
4. Pour mixture over ice in glass and add soda water to fill.
5. Top with a generous dollop of Vodka Whipped Cream and garnish with a basil leaf.
6. Procure straw.
